The Associated Press forecast said the New York contest would wind up "a whirlwind campaign." As usual it wound up with a lot of gas-bags emitting "hot air."

President Roosevelt hasn't shown us his forthcoming message to Congress, but he should avoid saying in it that he is satisfied Congress will be true to its trust.

The indignation of the crowd in New York because a red flag was displayed along with the Stars and Stripes was about the healthiest signs of the municipal campaign.

While Russia seemed to be divided against itself, Finland put in her demand for freedom and antonomy. Fearing that under the circumstances Finland might take what she asked for, the Czar "came to time."

The Hon. William B. Hornblower has followed Grover Cleveland's example and has written Mayor Geo. B. McClellan a letter pledging his support. We are glad to note that Mr. Hornblower is giving out no uncertain sound and we hope from now till next Tuesday he will lead the procession.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission has just decided a complaint of Texas cattle shippers against the Chicago Stock Company, of Chicago. The comlpaint was entered 11 years ago, during which period there may have been so many funerals among the cattle shippers that the decision will not be worth anything to them.

A dispute is going on between the Secretary of Agriculture and the Attorney General as to whether the meat packers or the government shall pay the cost of the tags placed on meats after they pass inspection. If the government pays it, the cost will fall on the people; if the packers pay the cost, they will fall back on the people.

Rebuilding of A. P. Hurt Now About Completed—To Fayetteville.

The steamer A. P. Hurt, so long the pride of the Cape Fear river, has just been rebuilt at Skinner's shipyard and to-day she will be taken in tow by the steamer Tar Heel and carried to Fayetteville where a new house will be built on deck. The boat has an entirely new hull and has been brought up to date in every respect. She belongs to the Tar Heel Steamboat Company, which also owns the steamer Tar Heel, and when the overhauling is completed, she will probably be put on the run between here and Fayetteville. When she is ready for the river, the steamer will be christened the "C. W. Lyon," in honor of Sheriff C. W. Lyon, of Bladen, president of the company. The Hurt, under her new name, will be a welcome addition to the river fleet.

"GUILTY" SAYS JURY

Adams and Sawyer Convicted in Federal Court of Murder on High Seas

TRIAL OF SCOTT NOW ON

Sentence Will Not Be Passed Upon Prisoners, Already Tried Until Argument of Motion to Arrest Judgment—May Hang Here.

A little after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the jury charged in the Federal Court with the solemn duty of passing upon the life or death of Robert Sawyer and Arthur Adams, charged with mutiny and murder on the high seas, returned a verdict of guilty as to both defendants and they must pay the penalty of death unless there is some unforeseen interference. A motion for arrest of judgment by George L. Peschau, Esq., attorney for the prisoner served to delay the passage of sentence by Judge Purnell until this morning. Mr. Peschau, is of course, undecided as to whether he will appeal the case or not until Judge Purnell passes upon the bill of exceptions filed with him yesterday afternoon and upon which are based the motion for the arrest of judgment and for a new trial.

The jury was ready with its verdict as early at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon but Attorney Peschau was absent from the court room and deputy marshals had to be hurried off in every direction to find him. The court and bystanders chafed under the delay and when the District Attorney after a wait of some time, asked His Honor if it would be proper to take the verdict in the absence of counsel when the prisoners themselves were present, Judge Purnell said that it seemed Mr. Peschau was treating the court with great discourtesy; however, he would wait a while longer as he hated to proceed without the attorney representing the defendants. Mr. Peschau came in a little later and after a formal return of the verdict and a very careful poll of the jury, he explained that his delay was on account of being engaged at his office in drawing up the bill of exceptions upon which he would move for an arrest of judgment and a new trial. He begged leave to hand in a typewritten copy of the exceptions later, which was granted, Judge Purnell stating that he would hear argument upon the same this morning.

Court convened yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock and District Attorney Skinner said, after examining a number of authorities with Mr. Peschau, he would withdraw his request that the log book be introduced in evidence. Argument to the jury was then begun, Mr. Peschau opening for the defence in an earnest, vigorous presentation of his side of the case, contending that his clients were innocent and should be rather commended than condemned for bringing the real murderers to the bar of justice. He told of conditions aboard ship and explained why it was possible for Scott, superior in intellect, audacious and desperate, to hold the unarmed sailors at bay and to inspire in them a mortal terror. Mr. Peschau spoke for an hour and ten minutes, dealing with the constitutional rights of the American sailor, the protection that is and should be thrown around him. The doctrine of reasonable doubt was brought out strongly and Mr. Peschau closed with an eloquent appeal for the lives of the colored men.

At 11:30 o'clock District Attorney Skinner, whose conduct of the case has been nothing if not ingenious and brilliant, began his argument. He spoke with his characteristic vigor and eloquence for nearly an hour and a half, concluding a few minutes before 1 o'clock. He emphasized the importance of the duty of the jury and said that during the 25 years of his career at the bar he had never prosecuted for a monetary consideration and at the present time he was acting solely from a sense of duty under his oath. The case was important to the maritime interests of the whole world. He also spoke of the great safeguards that the government had thrown around the American sailor, Congress having passed more laws bearing on that subject than upon any other. Col. Skinner ridiculed the idea of fear and timidity upon the part of the shipmates of Scott. It appeared to him a concocted plan to make Scott the scapegoat for the whole gang. Their conduct in that respect—of betraying their comrade in crime, was almost as reprehensible as the mutiny and murder itself. Inconsistency after another in the statements of Sawyer and Adams were pictured to the jury in irresistible manner. Col. Skinner at times was eloquent to a degree seldom heard in the court room. The solemnity and grandeur of the unbroken water, the fellowship of the sea and the hand of God in wind and wave were so pictured as to bring tears to the eyes of the weather beaten men of the sea listening to him. Col. Skinner's address was a fitting climax to his splendid conduct of the case for the government all through.

Following the District Attorney, Judge Purnell delivered a written charge to the jury, which was generally regarded as a very able one and eminently fair to both sides. The jury retired at 1:40 P. M. and court took a recess until 3:15 in the afternoon.

At the latter hour court recovened and several unimportant cases were being disposed of when there was a rap on the door and the jury filed into the court room and took their seats in the box. The absence of Attorney Peschau was noted and deputies were immediately dispatched by the marshal for him. Subsequent proceedings are noted above. Mr. F. M. Moore acted as spokesman for the jury and later it was polled, each member answering his name "Guilty." The prisoners and jury were both standing while the impressive proceedings were in progress. The prisoners were not visibly affected and resumed their seats a little disconsolate looking but not by any means overcome. The jurors were thanked for their services and discharged with the exception of those from the regular panel.

The Trial of Scott.

At 4:30 o'clock the District Attorney announced that he was ready to proceed with the trial of Henry Scott, the third member of the party of alleged mutineers. The prisoner was brought out of the dock and given a seat next to his counsel, William J. Bellamy, Esq. After the usual formalities were observed the call of jurors was begun one by one from the regular panel of 24 summoned for the term, Mr. Bellamy having agreed several days ago to ask for no special venire whh the understanding that if 12 men could not be secured from the regular venire, they would be summoned from bystanders. Many of the jurors called had just stepped aside off of the Adams and Sawyer jury and nearly all of them had formed or expressed the opinion that Scott was guilty. The remainder of the regular panel had been present in the court room during the trial and a majority of those too were disqualified because they had formed or expressed an opinion as to the prisoner's guilt. Only one juror was selected from the 24 called. He was Mr. Henry C. Wall, of Rockingham, and was the last of the regular panel called. He was questioned very closely but said he believed he could give the prisoner a fair and impartial trial. Each of the regular jurors called was readily passed by the government but the defence objected to all who had been on the previous case or who had in any way expressed an opinion.

When Mr. Wall had taken his seat in the box, exhausting the regular panel of jurors, Mr. Bellamy adverted to the understanding as to summoning from bystanders, but it was at once seen from those already examined, that nearly everybody in the court room had formed or expressed an opinion and were therefore ineligible. The District Attorney quite appreciated the situation and said that as the hour for a recess for the day had been reached anyway, he would suggest that the Marshal go out before morning and summons 25 or 50 talesmen not in the court room at the first trial. That was satisfactory to Mr. Bellamy who asked that the number be made 50 and it was so ordered by Judge Purnell, who instructed the Marshal to summons as far as possible freeholders, who have not heard the testimony in the former trials.

Other cases disposed of yesterday were as follows:

Thos. Franklin, Richmond county, removing and concealing spirits and retailing; defendant submitted and sentenced to three months in jail, $200 fine and costs and to pay a penalty of twice the revenue tax on 150 gallons of whiskey.

T. J. Gore, New Hanover county, failure to obliterate stamp; continued pending compromise.

The case of K. R. Raynor, of Cumberland county, charged with illicit distilling was called, the case being the one in which the papers disappeared to the undoing of Lawyer Musselwhite, of Hope Mills. Raynor went on the stand and positively denied ever having taken the papers from Mr. Musselwhite. He recognized Judge Sutton as his counsel and said he was absolutely innocent of any wrong doing. Judge Purnell ordered that Raynor be held in a justified bond of $500 and that he be held under the present bond of $200 until he can give the larger amount, which must not exceed ten days.

Judgment according to sci fa in the case of Terry Jones, principal, and A. C. Leach, surety, was stricken out and defendant was allowed to pay the costs. His attorney, Claudius Dockery, Esq., explained that the defendant defaulted in his appearance because of smallpox quarantines.

As court was about to adjourn the propriety of keeping Mr. Wall, the lone juror in the Scott case, in charge of a deputy marshal, was suggested. It was decided to allow Mr. Wall to have his liberty but it was upon his agreement not to discuss the case or allow it to be discussed in his presence. It was also ordered that Mr. Wall should not read the newspapers. The case will be resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

May Hang Here.

It is now stated that if an arrest of judgment and an appeal to the higher court does not avail the prisoners already convicted, that they will be executed by the United States Marshal upon some government reservation here.

Baraca Bible Class Rally.

The Baraca Bible Class of the Second Advent Church, will have a rally, or devotional meeting on Thursday evening, the 23rd inst. R. H. BRADY CHOSEN

Elected Last Night to Succeed Mr. Orrell on Audit and Finance Board

REGULAR MEETING OF BODY

No Increase of Salary During a Term is Established as Policy—Matters of Streets and Wharves—Cost of Yellow Fever Quarantine.

Mr. Robert H. Brady, the well known contractor of the Fifth ward, was last night elected a member of the Board of Audit and Finance of the city, succeeding Mr. John A. Orrell, who resigned some time ago upon his removal to Asheville. Mr. Orrell's resignation was not presented to the Board until last night for some reason and the election of Mr. Brady was unanimous upon the part of the three members of the Board present, viz. Messrs. Yates, Wilder and McNair. Chairman McQueen was called out of the city yesterday and was not present at the meeting for that reason. It is understood that Mr. Brady will accept the election and will qualify and enter upon his duties at the next regular meeting of the Board.

The regular meeting of the Board last night was not important except as to the election of Mr. Brady, whose choice will no doubt give general satisfaction.

The Clerk was directed to call the attention of the Sanitary Committee to the fact that its budget is being overdrawn in the matter of extra pay for cart drivers.

Of the ten car loads of street curbing ordered to be purchased by the Aldermen, the Board concurred in the purchase of five car loads, provided the cost of same is charged to the budget for lumber, terra-cotta and brick, no other funds being available.

The appropriation of $10,000 for the paving of Third street, from Market to Red Cross, and Dock, from Front to Second, with brick, was held for further consideration, money for the work being not now available.

Increase of the pay of Marsh Walker, janitor of Front street market, was not concurred in, the Board adhering to a policy, recently adopted, of making no increase in the salary list, during a fiscal year. The same reason was assigned for non-concurrence in an urgent recommendation from the Board of Health that the salary of Capt. Robert Green, Chief Quarantine Officer, be increased on account of extra service during the yellow fever epidemic further South.

The release of the City Treasurer from the collection of theatre tax, because of the city's ownership of the house, was referred back to the Board of Aldermen with a request for an opinion from the City Attorney as to whether the municipality has a legal right to abate the tax, which is something like $5 on each performance.

The appropriation of $45 for the purchase of a steel-wheeled wagon for the street cleaning department, was concurred in.

The abatement of costs and interest on the back tax collections of the Kelly estate was postponed until next meeting for an opinion from the City Attorney as to whether such an abatement would be legal.

Bill of Messrs. McClammy and Bryan for $200 counsel fees in the suit of J. W. Monk was deferred for further information.

Roger Moore, contractor for the North Fourth street paving, was made an additional payment of $6,436.84 on the property.

It was reported that the cost of quarantine during the yellow fever infection was $1,627.10.

A telephone was ordered placed in the office of the Board of Audit and Finance for the convenience of the Clerk and the public.

OSMAN STOCK COMPANY.

Another Large Audience Last Night—No Matinee This Afternoon.

Another large audience was at the Academy last night and enjoyed a fine presentation of the well known drama "Woman Against Woman." As on Monday night the specialties were exceedingly clever. Master Buster Crain, a juvenile vaudeville artist of two years and a half of age, appeared in a novel specialty. To-night he will introduce his feature specialty. The bill for to-night will be "A Fight for Life," for the use of which the company is paying a large royalty.

There will be no Wednesday matinee. The company takes special pride in its Friday night's production of "East Lynne," a play particularly suited to Miss Reicka, who is a pronounced emotional actress of a superior order.

BRADSTREET OFFICE HERE.

Another Mercantile Agency Will Be Established Here at Once.

Recognizing the increase of business interests and expansion along all lines in this city, the well known mercantile agency of Bradstreet has decided to open an office here and same will be in full operation in Wilmington within the next few days.

Wilmington has had for some years an office of R. G. Dun & Co., and while it still enjoys the confidence of the business community and will continue to serve a large clientele, the Bradstreet people think that the city has so expanded along all lines that there is room for both firms.

Mr. Pound, a representative of Bradstreet, has been in the city for several days calling on the business men and has met with such success that he has rented offices in The Southern and will begin business at once.

—C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., of Southport, was in the city yesterday.

—Dr. J. V. McGougan and Chief of Police Flowers, of Fayetteville, have been summoned and arrived last night to attend the Federal Court as witnesses in the S. L. McQueen case which will be called to-day or tomororw.

—Friends of Mr. R. L. Thomas, superintendent of the Wilmington Cotton Mills, will regret to know that his mother is critically ill at his home in this city. She has been an invalid for some time and came to Wilmington with the hope that the change would improve her health.

—Mr. W. D. Bishop, for over a year the capable superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, left last night for Huntington, West Virginia, which will be his headquarters over a district placed under his charge. Mr. Bishop is succeeded by Mr. G. T. Emmert, of Baltimore, who has already arrived.

—Rev. J. P. King, pastor of the Second Advent Church of this city, left yesterday afternoon accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. C. T. Grant, for Jacksonville, Fla. While away he will attend and take part in the conference of the South Georgia and Florida Advent Christians, which convened at Live Oak yesterday.

BAZAAR OPENS TO-NIGHT.

Everything in Readiness For Season of Gaiety in Masonic Temple.

The Masonic Bazaar, in all its elaboration and beauty, will open to the public in the Temple to-night at 8:30 o'clock and it is confidently expected that a large crowd will be in attendance. The various booths, lovely to behold, have already been installed and when the lights are turned on and the period of gaiety is inaugurated this evening, the visitors will find themselves in a veritable beautyland. The opening will be the feature to-night and the young people, the middle-aged, the old folks and everybody else are invited to join the merry throng.

There will be music by Hollowbush's Orchestra and dancing each night. Then the other features will be the flower show, the baby exhibition and hundreds of other attractions. A handsome Stieff piano is one of the bazaar prizes for some fortunate visitor.

BURGAW M'F'G COMPANY.

Receiver Appointed by Judge Allen at Kinston Yesterday.

Judge W. R. Allen, in chambers at Kinston yesterday, granted an order for a receiver for the Burgaw Manufacturing Company, of Burgaw, upon petition of Messrs. Stevens, Beasley & Weeks, attorneys for O. P. Johnson, a stockholders and creditor, and others who may come in and make themselves parties plaintiff. Judge Allen appointed L. V. Grady, Esq., of this city, receiver. Mr. Grady estimates the liabilities at $23,000 and assets $40,000. The plant manufactures crates baskets, etc., and does a general lumber business. It was incorporated only about two years ago with a paid-in capital stock of something like $25,000. Its inability to realize upon its assets and the desire for a reorganization is assigned as a reason for the petition for the receiver. The final hearing will be before Judge Allen at Kenansville on the second Monday in this month.

MR. JAMES PROMOTED.

Will Become Eastern A. C. L. Passenger Agent at Washington.

The friends of Mr. George P. James, for the past eighteen months private secretary to Mr. T. M. Emerson, third vice president of the Atlantic Coast Line at headquarters in this city, will be interested and pleased at the semi-official announcement that, on November 15th, he will become Eastern Passenger Agent of the A. C. L., with headquarters in Washington, D. C., succeeding Mr. Al. Reid, resigned. While an official circular to this effect has not been issued, it is understood that the appointment will be made in a few days.

Mr. James is a young Wilmingtonian of most pleasing address and engaging presence and is especially adapted to the new work to which it is understood he has been called. While a legion of his friends in this city will rejoice at his promotion they very much regret that this promotion will take him from among them.

Race Meet This Afternoon.

The first race meet of the season under the auspices of the Wilmington Driving Association will take place this afternoon on the old fair grounds track, which has been put in first-class condition. There will be two races, both for a distance of a half-mile, or once around the oval track. In each race there are three entries, and the winners must take the best two out of three heats. The events are for trotters or pacers, in the 2:30 class, and in the three minute class. Wagonettes will be at the corner of Front and Market streets this afternoon for the accommodation of all who wish to go to the grounds to witness the sport.

A. C. L. Station Master.

Capt. T. O. Bunting, Jr., station master of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, has resigned the position to resume his runs on the road, and has been succeeded by Mr. H. F. Woodruff, another of the Coast Line's well known and popular conductors. Capt. Bunting has been offered a passenger run, and another very desirable position on the Second Division of the system, but he has not yet decided which he will take. He is a capable railroad man and will do well wherever he goes.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 8.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE SOUTH.

Some Northern newspapers regard the President's recent visit to the South as a complete capture of the South. In fact they see the South revolutionized in politics and following right along after President Roosevelt as its leader. The New Orleans Times-Democrat sums up the truth of the matter this way:

"The attempt of some of the Northern papers to give a political significance to the President's tour of the South, and to see in the welcome accorded him a disposition toward a new alignment of parties is absurd. Men do not desert their party allegiance for such reasons. At the same time, the President's visit has great significance, and will unquestionably be productive of important results."

Commenting upon the above, the Washington Star, pro-administration Republican, states the truth even more fully. Says the Star:

"This is about the thing. Now that the journey is over and we may canvass what really took place, there seems no reason whatever to burrow under ground, or throw strong lights up dark alleys, for anything connected with the President's visit. It explains itself. Mr. Roosevelt merely looked in on people upon whom he had not as President called, shook hands, passed the time of day, and wished them good luck. That was all there was to it. He proposed nothing partisan. Could have accomplished nothing partisan. His hosts understood him, and he them. All the talk about a smash up of parties and a new organization with Mr. Roosevelt at its head was but the contribution of amiable gossipers to the public entertainment.

"The real, and probably the only, importance of the visit was in the desire of the President to leave a record of having visited every State and territory during his term of office. Alaska alone has not seen him, but there is time for him to pack his grip and go even there. It is the proper spirit to show, and his successors in the White House would do well to copy it. However strongly a man is opposed while a candidate for the presidency, he becomes after election an object of interest to all the people alike. There is a general desire to see him and hear him speak, and this feeling is often at its highest in localities where oposition to him as a party leader is the most uncompromising.

"Nothing new whatever, either in the President, or in the Southern people, was disclosed by this visit. Every feature of it might have been limned in advance. There was the man, young, ardent, fond of the crowd and responsive to popular acclaim, and there were the people, schooled in hospitality and naturally appreciative of sand and strenuousness. They reward those qualities in their own, and like them in others. The result was a series of hearty addresses on both sides, and some tip-top feasts, tempting to any palate. But votes changed, tomorrow, or next year, or in 1908? Not a one on your life!"

It should be remembered that the South gave President McKinley just as cordial a reception as it did Roosevelt. McKinley, too was looked on as the first President to offer the open door to the South. The South accepted his overtures as that much good will but as to politics, that is another thing. The South's political principles are not for sale or barter, and it does not think the kindly interest of a President means to make a purchase or offer a barter.

We well remember that while President Grant was merely passing through the South on his way to Cuba, crowds gathered at the railroads to see him and the cities were packed with people to get a glimpse of him. As lately the President of the United States, every defernce was shown to him. He was cordially greeted and thousands crushed about him to shake his hand. At the same time it was remembered that only a few years previouslyy he had placed nine counties in South Carolina under martial law, if we remember the number of counties correctly. He passed through many of those identical counties and in them good natured crowds gathered to see Grant—the magnanimous soldier, and only a few months previously the Republic's chief.

HEARST-ODELL ALLIANCE.

The New York municipal campaign which closed with the election yesterday was probably the most interesting of all political contests in the metropolis. We do not regard it as the most important, but it was certainly unique in that party lines were broken and it was a free for all contest. It is generally conceded that if either McClellan or Ivins were elected, New York would have a good mayor, but a great many Gothamites seemed to fear the drift towards socialism as represented in the campaign of Editor William Randolph Hearst for municipal ownership. Doubtless it was not municipal ownership so much that made Hearst to be feared as it is the general impression in New York that the editor candidate is built on socialist lines.

The most remarkable development in the campaign, if it is true, was the alliance between Hearst and Odell, the Republican machine boss in New York State. "Politics make strange bedfellows" is an old adage but Hearst's and Odell's making common cause was a remarkable illustration of it. That there was a dicker between Hearst and Odell, we have as authority the Brooklyn Citizen (Dem.) and the New York Times (Ind). Says the Times:

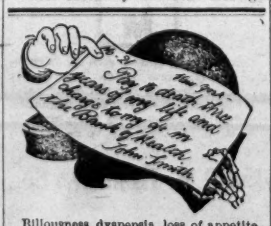
"In a very large number of the Assembly districts in Manhattan and the Bronx and in Kings there has been a corrupt bargain or 'deal' between the Odell leaders and the Hearst leaders by which the Hearst indorsement has been secured for Republican Assembly and Aldermanic nominees undoubtedly in exchange for Republican votes for Hearst. The oldest New Yorker would search his memory in vain for any political dicker more odious and loathsome than the coalition between Odell and Hearst. It is impossible that Assembly votes won by such corrupt means should be put to good uses by Benjamin B. Odell. The election of Democratic Assemblymen will baffle him.

"The Tammany nominees may not all be statesmen of the highest order, but it is a blank impossibility that they should be less worthy of confidence than candidates nominated by Benjamin B. Odell and indorsed by William R. Hearst."

The Citizen states that not only was there an alliance between Hearst and the infamous Odell, but forgery was resorted to to carry out the deal. The Citizen says:

"Facts have come to light which prove conclusively that Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., the Republican State leader and William Randolph Hearst, the Municipal League candidate for Mayor of this city, are in a 'deal,' the object of which is to give the former control of the next Assembly and Board of Aldermen, and the latter control of the city government. The 'deal,' as perfected, embraces twenty-nine Assembly districts. The 'deal' contemplates the delivery of Republican votes for Hearst for Mayor in return for Hearst votes for Odell's candidates for Assembly and Alderman. Odell wants to control the Assembly in order to elect an Odell speaker, and he wants to control the Board of Aldermen, in order to be able to reapportion the Assembly and Aldermanic districts next year in the interest of the Republican State organization. Coincident with the discovery of the deal, the investigators have hit upon one of the boldest schemes ever perpetrated to nullify the will of the people. In order to carry out the legal requirements as to nominations by petitions, the men behind the 'deal' have not hesitated to commit the crime of forgery. Last night applications were made to the District Attorney of New York county for warrants for the arrest of four notaries and Commissioners of Deeds, who are charged with certifying to forgeries in connection with the Hearst indorsements of Republican candidates for Assemblymen and Aldermen. Direct proof has been obtained of 103 forgeries in the Fourteenth, Twenty-ninth and Thirty-first districts alone."

This certainly makes strange reading. Two reputable papers make the charge. It is remarkably strange, from the fact that Hearst has denounced Odellism and was supposed to be one of those immaculate reformers utterly opposed to dirty politics either in his own party or in the Republican party. Who can the people trust?



Biliousness, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, disturbed sleep, nervousness, headache, giddiness and drowsiness, wind and pain or fullness of the stomach after meals, cold chills and flushings of heat, shortness of breath—these are the blank cheques of physical bankruptcy.

The man who suffers from these disorders and neglects them will soon be in the relentless grasp of some fatal disease. If he is naturally narrow chested and shallow lunged, it will probably be consumption; if his father or mother died of paralysis or some nervous trouble, it will probably be nervous exhaustion or prostration, or even insanity; if there is a taint in the family blood, it will be blood or skin disease; if he lives in a new or a low, swampy country, it will be malaria; if he lives a life of exposure, it may be rheumatism. There is one safe course for a man to follow who finds himself "out of sorts" and suffering from the symptoms described. It is to resort to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine makes the appetite keen, corrects all disorders of the digestion, renders assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, healthy flesh and nerve tissue. It cures almost all diseases that result from insufficient or improper nourishment of the brain and nerves. Bronchial, throat, and even lung affections, when not too far advanced, readily yield to it.

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R.V. Pierce over 30 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET.

Spot Cotton Was Firm, But Not Notably Higher.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, No. 7.—Spot cotton was very firm, but not quotable higher; sales, 2,350 bales, including 1,250 to arrive. Delivered on contracts, 3. Middling, 11 5-16c. Futures opened quiet and prices were 14 to 15 points down and soon went still lower; December touching, 11.12 in the early trading. Liverpool was disappointing, cables reporting the bearish feature that the continent refused to follow the advance. There had not been much rain over the cotton belt and promise was for fair weather for tomorrow. Then the census ginners report being due tomorrow seemed to indicate a good place for taking of profits and the selling by New York was indulged in quite heavily. In the trading, December opened 14 point down at 11.20 receded 8 points additional, recovered to 11.24, and finally eased of to 11.21. The market closed quiet, net losses 11 to 14 points.

ROOSEVELT'S SOUTHERN TRIP.

New York Chamber of Commerce Sees Good in It.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 2.—The importance of President Roosevelt's recent trip to the South was to-day commented on by Morris K. Jesup, president of the New York Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting of that body. He said that this trip had done more to cement the kindly relations between the North and South than anything else that has happened since the close of the war. Mr. Jesup asked the Chamber of Commerce to send resolution of commendations to the President and was himself appointed to communicate the views of the chamber on this subject to the President.

A SUGGESTION.

To the People of Wilmington.

The articles appearing in some of our leading publications have created a good deal of discussion in Wilmington in regard to advertised medicines, their reliability and power to cure, and as a local druggist, I, Robert R. Bellamy, want to say to the people of Wilmington, that I believe one of the most reliable medicines that we have known in our drug experience, extending over a long period, is Vinol, the cod liver preparation, made without oil.

"Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is printed on the back label of every bottle, and it actually does contain in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil taken from fresh cods' livers, and without a drop of the system-clogging oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and this is why it is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver and emulsions.

"Inasmuch as Vinol is therefore the latest scientific improvement of an old and standard remedy it is the greatest strength creator in the world for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness. It cures hacking coughs, chronic colds and all pulmonary troubles. We positively guarantee to return money if it fails." Robert R. Bellamy.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Advice to Merchants and Farmers

Do you know when you buy any grade of Guano? It's simply an adulteration, a small per cent of which is blood and bone, which is the superior ingredient, but when you purchase FISH SCRAP, you get nothing but pure FLESH, BLOOD & BONE. The above assertion we guarantee and can prove. Therefore FISH SCRAP has no equal as a Fertilizer. We are Sole Agents for the Ocean Fisheries Co., who manufacture the finest article of FISH SCRAP known. Prices cheerfully given on application.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The State has chartered the Morganton Furniture Company, capital stock of $125,000 with very extensive privileges including an electric light and power plant.

—A charter has been granted to the Age Lime Company at Washington, with a capital stock of $125,000 with power to manufacture any kind of fertilizers and other extensive privileges.

—Secretary Parker, of the North Carolina Cotton Growers' Association, says that the returns from the cotton growing counties show the crop to be 68 per cent. of that made last year.

Lumberton Argus: The Federal grand jury failed to secure a bill against the lady accused of opening mail at the Hallsville postoffice. Solicitor Lyon was representing her and says he thinks there was a conspiracy against the postmistress.

—A Salisbury lady writes a card to the Charlotte Observer and says in part: Socialism is an evil not generally understood, which is steadily gaining a foothold in this fair Southland of ours. What does the convention called to meet in Greensboro mean? Why do our people pay so little attention to this army of trouble slowly advancing to confront us? A few marches and we will face anarchy.

—Editor Clarence H. Poe, of The Progressive Farmer, Raleigh, has gone to New York, where he may be engaged as managing editor of a new farm magazine to be established by one of the best known American publishers. Mr. Poe does not wish to leave North Carolina, but hopes he can be able to do the work by spending only part of his time in New York, and without abandoning his present work.

—Ed. Ashenback, the baseball minor league magnate and former manager of the Charlotte team, is at his home in Cincinnati for the winter. Last Spring Ashenback bought the Scranton, Pa., team of the New York State League and, after the season of 70 games, found himself $3,800 in the hole. Nothing daunted, he took the team out on a series of exhibition games and finished up $6,000 ahead. Ashenback will control and manage the Scranton team again next year. His rise from a penniless boy to the ownership of a prosperous team in one of the strongest minor leagues is looked on as remarkable by his friends.

—Charlotte Observer, Nov. 7: The people who live about four miles northwest of Fort Mill, S. C., are hunting for a negro who tried to assault the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coon McKinney, tenants on the farm of Mr. Lee S. Nivens. The child went to the pasture after the cow late Saturday afternoon, and the unknown negro stepped from behind a tree and drew a gun on her, threatening to blow her head off if she uttered any outcry. The mother of the girl having become alarmed had gone in search of her, when she came up on the negro and frightened him off before he had time to accomplish his purpose. The people of the neighborhood are very much wrought up over the affair and if the negro is caught he may be roughly handled. A certain negro is suspected.

—On Monday afternoon Governor Glenn received a telegram from Sheriff Davis, of Warren county, saying that two negro prisoners in jail charged with murder, were in danger of being lynched. He thought best to remove the prisoners immediately to some safe place. The governor wired Davis to bring the prisoners to Raleigh if necessary for safety, and to order out local troops if needed. The prisoners last Saturday murdered a white farmer named Davis, because he would not turn out from the road, stabbing him many times with knives. Governor Glenn talked over the telephone with Sheriff Davis, who said the people wanted a speedy trial. The Governor said he would order a special term. The Governor then ordered the sheriff to bring the men to Raleigh and they were landed in prison there Monday night. They are bright mulattoes, Burton Jarrell, aged 22, and Garfield Hicks, aged 24. Each denies his guilt and declares the other is the criminal. Sheriff Davis says a white man named Barnes was in a buggy behind King, the murdered man, and when Barnes saw Hicks attack King he tried to seize Hicks, but Jarrell interferred. King, with his throat cut to the neckbone, got in his buggy to drive to a doctor, but in a few minutes fell dead while his horses ran away, and when they were stopped two miles away the body was in the vehicle. A large and bloody knife was found in Hicks' pocket when he was captured an hour later. He denied that he had changed his bloody shirt, but it was found in a house in a tub of water.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Wilmington Mothers Should Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys.

The earliest warning is bed-wetting.

Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles,

To blame the child for its own distress.

Seek to cure the kidneys—

Save the child from deadly kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Wilmington parents recommend them.

J. T. Ebert, formerly of 515 South Sixth stret, mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she has improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her Kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact, Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other. **

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my Mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung troubles." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Trial bottle free. **

Prof. Mims in the City.

Dr. Edwin Mims, professor of English Literature at Trinity College, is the guest of Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace M. E. church. Dr. Mims will speak at the boys' meeting at the Y. M. C. A. this morning at 10 o'clock and at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 5 P. M. Dr. Mims is a most interesting speaker and a very learned man. He will be heard with much interest by the boys and young men. At the regular evening service, Dr. Mims will address the congregation of Grace M. E. church.

Coal--Wood--Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

THE JEWISH MASSACRE

Murder Jews in Several Towns Near Odessa—Other Disorders in Russia.

By Cable to The Morning Star

Odessa, Nov. 7.—The mobs completely devastated, plundered and burned all the Jewish houses in the suburb of Dalnik. In the large villages of Severinovka and Anatolievka and the towns of Ovidiopl, Maiaki, Akkerman, Ataki, Oliviopol and Winitza, many hundreds of persons are reported to have been killed and thousands wounded.

The details of last week's massacres at Odessa are gradually leaking out and only serve to add to the horrors. It appears that the soldiers ruthlessly slaughtered the defenders of Jewish houses. In one case where workmen were defending Jews were shot. At the Jewish agricultural school the rioters first secured a large sum of money from the principal as a guarantee of his safety and afterwards returned and demanded more. Failing in obtaining any more money they slaughtered a number of the pupils. The rest escaped.

In another case, under horrible tortures, rioters forced a rabbi to surrender the key of his safe containing $1,100 deposited in his keeping and then killed the rabbi and his wife.

Four Killed at Warsaw.

MIDSHIPMAN BRANCH DIED.

Was Injured in Fight With Another Cadet.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 7.—Midshipman James R. Branch, son of James R. Branch, of the Hanover Bank of New York City, and secretary of the American Bankers' Association, who was seriously injured in a fist fight with another midshipman, died today. Midshipman Branch died from injuries he had received in a fight with Midshipman Minor Meriweather, Jr., of LaFayetteville, La. The fight took place by arrangement on Sunday night, and was a regular pitched battle with a ring and seconds. It lasted twenty-three rounds, and ended when Branch was knocked down and struck the right side of his head against the floor. Meriweather is in the hospital as a result of the injuries he received in the fight, and for that reason the authorities have not put him under arrest. The question of his accountability to the civil authorities on a charge of manslaughter has also been discussed. It is understood that the fight took place because Branch had, in his line of duty, reported Meriweather for a breach of discipline. No one is allowed to see the latter, but it is reported, that he feels the matter most keenly.

DEWEY TO THE "PEN."

Defaulting Newbern Cashier Enters Upon Six-Year Term.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—T. W. Dewey, defaulting cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, of Newbern, entered this evening on his service of a six-year sentence in the penitentiary. His coming to the penitentiary was quite unique. He arrived this morning at 8:40; greeted none of his friends, but went directly to the penitentiary, spending the day there, as it were a guest, looking over the institution.

The afternoon Sheriff Biddle, of Craven county, arrived, drove to the penitentiary, finding Dewey there and went through the formal ceremony of delivering Dewey to the authorities and receiving a receipt for him. Dewey had been out on $40,000 bond since his conviction and pending his appeal to the Supreme Court by whom the sentence was affirmed, October 3rd.

It has required time since then to certify the findings of the Supreme Court down to Craven county. Dewey is in excellent health and seemed cheerful. He said he has made up his mind not to worry any more over his sentence and will serve as patiently as he can.

REPUBLICAN MACHINE BOSS.

George B. Cox, Republican Leader in Cincinnati, Retires.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—George B. Cox, the well-known Republican leader, tonight gave to The Associated Press the following statement, withdrawing from active service in the Republican party:

"Now that the election is over and the people have signified their choice for city, county and State officials, and I sincerely trust they have selected wisely, I wish to announce to the public that from this day, after 25 years of active service in the ranks of the Republican party, my personal activity in politics shall cease. I will continue to vote the Republican ticket, but others must bear the burden of future campaigns. To the local Republican organization, and the many friends that have stood with us in the past, I tender most grateful thanks for their unswerving loyalty and support. I hope for their future good will.

"Respectfully yours,
"GEORGE B. COX."

CUMBERLAND LIQUOR LAW.

Supreme Court Hands Down Opinion Two-Gallon Act.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—In a batch of opinions just handed down by the Supreme Court, is one in State vs. McIntyre, from Cumberland, designed to test the Cumberland statute making the finding of two gallons or more of whiskey in one's possession prima facie evidence of retailing without license. The court however passed over all vital issues in the case and ordered an arrest of judgment on the ground that the bill of indictment did not state a statutory offense.

MACHINE GANG BADLY BEATEN

Philadelphia Carried by Reformers by Overwhelming Majority Yesterday

EXCITING TIME AT POLLS

Machine Republicans Attempted Intimidation But Utterly Failed—Reformers Telegraph Glad Tidings to President.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Contrary to general expectation there was no serious disturbances in the city today. There were, however, many small scrimmages at polling places, especially in the more thickly settled wards where the Republican organization is very strong and where the city party put up a most determined fight. The police department was at all times master of the situation and whenever trouble was started it was quickly stopped. Some of these disturbances blossomed into small riots, but after the smoke had cleared away they found that no one was seriously wounded.

Never in the history of the city were such complete arrangements made for preventing the casting of illegal votes. Besides the large number of watchers and overseers located at the 1,100 polling places there were from 1 to 6 police stationed at each of the places. Their orders were explicit, and the numerous squabbles between policemen and election officers proves that they attempted to carry them out.

The orders of the police proved extremely irksome to many election officers, principally those affiliated with the Republicans. In many cases they ordered the police away from the polling places and upon their refusal to leave took the matter to court where the differences were patched up. The election officers also complained bitterly of police interference with legal organization voters and asert that in many instances honest voters were terrorized.

The storm center of the day was in the Fifth ward where election day seldom goes by without trouble. Today this ward, within whose boundary stands Independence Hall was in an uproar most of the day. There was continual friction between the police and the Republicans.

The greatest trouble was experienced in the 18th division where not a ballot was cast until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The election board refused to open the polling place until the police left the building. The policemen refused, and the whole party was hauled into court. The judges instructed the election board to return and open the polls. This they refused to do and a curb stone election was held for the selection of a new board while several hundred people looked on and shouted. The voting place was then opened with the new board under the protection of a cordon of police. Many organization Republicans, it is claimed, refused to vote. One of the incidents of the Fifth ward struggle was the arrest of Harbormaster Samuel G. Maloney on the charge of conspiracy to hold an illegal election. He is the Republican leader of the ward and his followers were ready to storm the police station if he was not released. He secured bail and will be given a further hearing. Police Magistrate Fealy was also arrested for interfering with a policeman and was released on bail.

Similar scenes were enacted in the Seventh ward, the home of Israel W. Durham, the leader of the organization, and in the eighth district where United States Senator Penrose resides. The poling place where the Senator voted was closed for several hours because the election officers claimed the police interferred.

Outside of the centrally located and thickly populated wards the city was comparatively quiet.

The number of arrests made up to a late hour tonight for election frauds was 500. Police Magistrates were on duty in all parts of the city giving the prisoners hearings. The scene at the central police station at the City Hall was without precedent. More than 200 prisoners were given hearings there for alleged fraud. Today several hundred persons were gathered in the court yard watching the prisoners arrive in wagon loads. Every batch of prisoners were hissed or hooted as they were led into the City Hall. The hearing room was crowded with party workers, lawyers, bondsmen and others. As quickly as a prisoner was brought in he was given immediate hearing, held in bail for further hearing and promptly released by a waiting bondsman. The released men were then ordered back to their respective election divisions.

Democrats Carry Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from various parts of the State indicate the election of Berry (Democrat), for State Treasurer by a large plurality. Republican strongholds are showing unexpected gains for Berry. Lancaster county, normally Republican by 10,000, is in doubt. Dauphin county, in which Harrisonburg, the capital is located, another Republican stronghold, gives Berry 1,500 plurality. Other Republican counties show the same enormous Republican losses. Berry, nominated as a Democrat, was endorsed by the Independent Republicans and the Prohibitionists. In this city the Lincoln party, formed by the Independents, gave Berry a tremendous vote. The State Treasury has been under Republican control since 1880. Roosevelt's plurality last year was 504,000.

State Treasurer was the only State Officer for which there was a contest at to-day's election in Pennsylvania. Judge John T. Stewart, an appointee of Governor Pennypacker, was re-elected associate judge of the Supreme Court for the full term of 21 years. President Judge Charles E. Rice and Judges Geo. B. Orlady and Jas. A. Beaver, of the Superior Court, were re-elected for a term of ten years. John B. Head, Democrat, was also elected a Superior Court judge to succeed Judge Peter P Smith, the minority member of that body who failed of renomination.

Public interest in the contest for State Treasurer, for which the principal candidates were J. Lee Plummer, nominee of the Republican and Citizens parties, and William H. Berry, the candidate of the Democratic Prohibition, Lincoln and Independent parties. Berry was also the choice of the city party leaders of Philadelphia, although his nomination was never formally endorsed by that party on the ground that it was purely a local organization.

Disfranchisement Defeated in Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—The election in Maryland today was for a State comptroller, legislature, and county offices, and in Baltimore for a judge of the Supreme Court, sheriff, city clerk and surveyer. The issue which engrossed popular attention was a proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which was to disfranchise negro voters but which aroused widespread opposition among many Democrats and foreign voters in both parties. Owing to the extreme length of the ballot the count has been slow, and at a late hour tonight the votes in some of the city precincts and remote country districts have not been counted. The returns so far received however, make certain the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment by a decisive majority of 20,000 or more and very probably the election of McCullough, Republican, State comptroller, over Atkinson, Democrat, and the election of Republicans in three out of four of the city legislative districts. The Republican candidates for sheriff, city court clerk and city surveyor in Baltimore are also elected. Chief Judge Harlan, Democrat, is re-elected by 10,000 majority. The Republicans did not nominate a candidate against Judge Harlan, though there was an independent Republican candidate. The political complexion of the next legislature is uncertain and will not be known until the official count has been completed.

The Result in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The returns show that more special tickets were voted than in many years. One Democrat, Tolman, has a chance to be elected judge, as he figures 3,000 ahead of his opponents, but the other five Republican candidates for judgeship will undoubtedly be elected by pluralities ranging from 5,000 to 25,000. The vote for sanitary trustees is very close, and it may take the complete returns to determine the result. The indications are that the Republicans may have the president and a majority of the members of the board.

Democrats Claim Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—At 11 o'clock to-night the Democratic leaders in this State claimed the election of Pattison and the entire Democratic ticket by substantial pluralities while the Republicans simply refused to concede such a claim, insisting that the returns were insufficient at that hour to indicate anything except that the vote had been very heavy and that the amount of scratching made counting very slow. In the cities the Republican loss exceeded 100 to the precinct, but as the loss per precinct outside of the large cities was so far as reported only about thirty there was no certainty that the loss would run high enough to wipe out the 230,000 Republican plurality, with which comparisons were made. Less than 300 of the 4,200 precincts had been heard from at 11 o'clock.

At midnight Chairman Dick gave the following statement to the Associated Press:

The election returns are fragmentary and meagre at this hour, delay being due to the large number of candidates and a great deal of local ticket scratching. While it is not practicable as yet to approximate definite figures, indications slowly point to the re-election of Governor Herrick and the entire Republican State ticket by safe pluralities.

(Signed) CHARLES DICK,
Chairman.

2 P. M.—The State Journal has estimated pluralities from 63 out of the 80 counties in the State showing a net plurality of 820 for Herrick for Governor. The Republican plurality are 31,670 and the Democratic plurality, 30,850.

Virginia 20,000 to 30,000 Demoratic.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—The Democrats swept Virginia to-day, but by a majority much smaller than usual, because of the fact that the vote was everywhere very light. The Democratic plurality is from 20,000 to 25,000, and prooably nearer than the first figure than the second. Mr. Swanson the successful candidate for the governorship, however, estimates his plurality at 30,000. There was Democratic apathy throughout the State, but on the other hand, there was Republican indifference, also. The negroes everywhere refrained from voting also entirely. The Republicans gain a few members of the Legislature, but not as many, apparently, as it was though they would. They increase their representation from 16 to about 25, probably, on joint ballot.

The Richmond vote was only 4,000 out of a total of about 7,000. Of this the Democratic ticket received about 3,000.

At 2 o'clock this morning the Times-Dispatch figures, with the City of Briston, and less than a dozen counties to hear from, giving the Democrats a plurality of 34,660.

Rhode Island Republican.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—A heavy poll for the Republican candiate for the executive chair, Governor George H. Utter, which is expected to give him a plurality of a least 3,000 over the Democratic nominee, Lucius F. C. Garvin, was the feature of the State election to-day. A plurality of 1,000 was the largest looked for even by Mr. Utter's most ardent supporters. Governor Utter's running mates on the ticket seemed sure of large pluralities at midnight. Republican gains were made in each branch of the Legislature.

Massachusetts Republican.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, the Republican candidate, was elected Governor of Massachusetts, in the State election to-day by a plurality of 29,435 over General Charles W. Bartlett, of Boston, the Democratic candidate. For the second place on the ticket, for which there was an unusually warm contest. Eben S. Draper, of Hopdale, the Republican candidate, won over Henry W. Whitney, of Brookline, his Democratic opponent, and the leading advocate for reciprocity, by a plurality of 3,942.

The Republicans also elected seven of the eight members of the executive council, and the usual large majority in both branches of the Legislature.

MAYOR M'CLELLAN WAS RE-ELECTED

Hearst Claims Fraud and Will Contest the Election in New York City

VIRGINIA STILL DEMOCRATIC

Democrats Claim Clean Sweep in Ohio—Gorman Defeated in Maryland—Massachusetts and Rhode Island Claimed by Republicans.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, Nov. 7.—Returns at midnight indicate that George B. McClellan, democrat, is re-elected Mayor of New York by between 3,000 and 4,000 plurality over W. R. Hearst, Municipal Ownership, and that William T. Jerome, Independent, is re-elected district attorney by about 8,000 over Jas. W. Osborne, Democrat.

At midnight Mr. Hearst declined to admit his defeat, and declared his intion to contest the election. At that time returns from 184 election districts had not been received. McClellan had 205,598; Hearst, 203,370, and Ivins, 130,326 votes.

The following statement was issued at midnight by W. R. Hearst:

"We have won this election. All Tammany's frauds, all Tammany's corruption, all Tammany's intimidation and violence, all Tammany's false registration, illegal voting and dishonest count have not been able to overcome a great popular majority. The recount will show that we have won the election by many thousands of votes. I shall fight this battle to the end, in behalf of the people who have cast their votes for me, and who shall not be disfranchised by any effort of criminal bosses."

After a campaign unusual in its public interest and excitement, Tammany Hall met defeat in its hard fought efforts to elect James W. Osborne to the district attorneyship of New York county, and saved the mayoralty of the city by probably only a few thousand votes. So close was the contest that up to 11 o'clock, the result was not certain, but at that time the indications were that George B. McClellan, Democrat, had been re-elected mayor for a four-year's term, and that William T. Jerome, Independent, had been re-elected district Attorney. The extent to which the Tammany organization was shaken, may be judged from the fact that there was no fusion of the opposition parties, and means by which the organization had been combatted heretofore, but Jerome's running as a candidate of no party, and with his record in office as his platform, succeeded in overcoming the former prestige of the Democratic organization, and William Randolph Hearst standing as the nominee of the Municipal Ownership League, a new factor in New York politics, came within a few thousand votes of being elected mayor.

At 11 o'clock, when about half the returns from New York county were in, it appeared that Jerome had won by several thousand. His triumph was almost entirely a personal one, and showed that an appeal may be made successfully to voters on the strength of personal honesty and persistent, sympathetic denunciation of graft and political bossism. Mr. Jerome's campaign was conducted with especial opposition to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and his reputed wealth, and the result practically is a defeat for Murphy, as well as for Osborne.

Up to 11 o'clock Mr. Hearst who carired the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens, refused to concede his defeat and his campaign manager declared that a contest would be made. William M. Ivins, the Republican nominee, was third in the race for Mayor and ran far behind Hearst.

Bird S. Coler was elected borough president of Brooklyn, on the Municipl Ownership Ticket and Hearst carried that borough by a plurality of 15,628. The returns up to 11 o'clock indicated that McClellan's pluralities in Manhattan and the Bronx and Richmond would more than overcome the Hearst pluralities in Brooklyn and Queens Boroughs.

An analysis of the vote for mayor shows that Hearst polled a little more than 200,000 votes and that apparently these votes were drawn almost equally from the Democratic and Republican parties. McClellan's vote this year was about 110,000 smaller than his vote of two years ago, while Ivins' vote was about 125,000 smaller than Low's vote of two years ago. These figures, however, may not be entirely accurate, owing to the fact that a number of Republicans probably voted for McClellan in order to aid in the defeat of Hearst.

Hearst's large vote shows that the Municipal Ownership League must be reckoned with as a factor in the city's politics. Coler's election as president of the borough of Brooklyn, gives the League representation on the board of estimate and apportionment, which has control of the city's expenditures. It is estimated that this board will direct the outlay of $900,000,000 during the next four years.

Less than a month ago, when Hearst accepted the nomination of the Municipal Ownership League, McClellan's re-election was regarded as a certainty and the Mayor himself declared that he intended to make only a few speeches. With the sudden outburst of enthusiastic support of Hearst, however, the situation changed so swiftly that the Democratic leaders were startled from the repose of their quiet confidence to engage in one of its hardest fights. Hearst wound up his campaign Sunday night at Madison Square Garden with the garden crowded to the doors and tens of thousands of men stood outside for hours cheering for the Municipal Ownership candidate. It was felt then that the vote would be close and that Tammany must fight.

The weather today was ideal aiding greatly in the polling of a large vote. There was little disorder and although many arrests were made they frequently were due to misunderstandings of clerical errors and only a few men were held for trial. The voting was unusually rapid. An incident of the day was the desertion of several hundreds of Mr. Hearst's poll watchers, who went over to the opposition.

At 2 o'clock this morning the returns from New York county in the district attorneyship contest were in with the exception of 82 election districts. They give Jerome, 101,597; Osborne, 100,220; Shearn, 65,649; Flammer, 12,074, making Jerome's plurality 1,377.

The members of the law committee of the Municipal Ownership League were in conference early this morning and decided that legal demands be made today or tomorrow (Thursday), at the latest, for a recount of the entire vote cast in New York city. The Hearst men declare that the fraudulent voting throughout the city was the most flagrant that was ever attempted in this country.

The county of New York with 46 election districts missing gives: Flammer, 42,635; Osborne, 104,193; Shearn, 68,701; Jerome, 107,718. This gives Jerome a plurality of 3,525.

How the Candidates Voted.

New York, Nov. 7.—William R. Hearst, candidate for mayor on the municipal ownership ticket, voted before taking breakfast. His ballot was cast at 6:45 o'clock in a polling place in an undertaker's shop in East Twenty-ninth street. Even at that early hour and despite the fact that Mr. Hearst started alone for the polling booth, a large number of his supporters had seen him, and had formed an enthusiastic cheering procession to escort him to the booth.

A development of interest this morning was the publication of a significant statement by Arthur Brisbane, one of Mr. Hearst's editorial writers, who declared that his employer was looking for greater things than the mayoralty of New York. Mr. Brisbane said:

"Mr. Hearst is built for greater things even than the mayoralty of this city, and he's going to get them. This country is hard up for rich, intelligent, and powerful men."

Mayor George B. McClellan, Democratic candidate for re-election, and William M. Ivins, Republican mayoralty candidate, each voted at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. McClellan voted in a Sixth avenue tailor shop in the Nineteenth election district of the Fifth Assembly district. His home is two blocks away and accompanied by only one other person, the Mayor walked to the voting place.

Mr. Irvins rode in a carriage to his voting place, the Eighteenth election district, of the Twenty-fifth Assembly district. Mr. Ivins said he voted for Jerome. He said he thought Jerome's chances for election were practically good.

To-day's vote was cast at 1,948 polling places. The total registration was 646,971. The polls closed at 5 P. M.

At the Hearst headquarters to-day Max Ihmsen, one of Mr. Hearst's lieutenants, said:

"A great many Hearst watchers and captains have been bought off by Tammany Hall, and have deserted us. We have sent out volunteers wherever we could learn of the desertions, but they appear to be all over the city."

Mr. Hearst said: "We are handicapped by not having an organization back of us and by some of our captains having deserted."

District Attorney Jerome, Independent candidate for re-election, was given an ovation when he walked to the pools to vote at 11 o'clock. He voted in a basement barber shop in the lower east side, after which, the cheering crowd escorted him to a street car.

How the News Was Received.

In spite of the absorbing interest taken from the opening to the close of a remarkable campaign, replete with sensational features, the announcement of the results on the various bulletin boards tonight was received with comparatively little enthusiasm, the crowds being considerably smaller than on previous occasions of the kind.

On Park Row, usually the centre of interest on election night, the gathering in front of the newspaper offices, which ordinarily throngs City Hall park, barely sufficed to form a deep fringe along the side facing the row. Here the crowd had hardly reached its maximum at 7:30 o'clock when the returns began to indicate the election of McClellan, which was soon afterwards confirmed one bulletin after another.

This was received with loud cheering and a mighty salute of horns, rattles and other din producing devices, but thereafter the interest subsided, the only other feature of attraction being the question of the election of Jerome.

Up town along the line of Broadway and in Herald Square and Times Square and in front of the Democratic and Municipal Ownership League headquarters, the crowds were more numerous and demonstrative. Fully 25,000 persons thronged Broadway and 23rd street to 42nd street, shouting and cheering and flowing up and down the great thoroughfare in endless processions. Everywhere good humor was shown and the strong forces of police on duty had no trouble in preserving perfect order.

At the Hearst headquarters in the Hoffman House the candidate and his advisers withdrew to a private room soon after the election of McClellan was assured and denied themselves to all inquirers. Mayor McClellan received the returns at the headquarters at the Hotel Bartholdi where early in the evening he began to receive the congratulations of his supporters and later held a triumphal levee.

Hearst Man Probably Killed.

New York, Nov. 7.—Joseph Thomas, one of the Hearst leaders, was beaten and perhaps fatally injured today by 12 men who assaulted him when he attempted to cause the arrest of a voter just outside of an election booth in Monroe street. Thomas is the head of the Municipal Ownership League committee for investigating election frauds. He had asked an election deputy to arrest a voter at the Monroe street booth when he was knocked down and kicked about the body several times. Thomas said the men who assaulted him were reporters of Tammany Hall.

Hearst Charges Wholesale Fraud.

New York, Nov. 7.—Mr. Ihmsen, of the Municipal Ownership League, said to-night that the league has evidence of 50,000 illegal votes having been cast. He said that frauds have been discovered in all five boroughs, and that the law committee of the league is gathering all evidence. Mr. Ihmsen, also announced that all the candidates in all boroughs on the Municipal Ownership League ticket had been asked to assemble at Mr. Hearst's office in the Hoffman House for an all night conference on the situation.

CAUGHT LAST STRAW

Desperate Condition of Man Who Drank Till He Had No Will Power

KEELEY FINALLY SAVED HIM

His Case Was Regarded as Incurable But Greensboro Institute Released Him From the Shackles of Slavery to Whiskey.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I feel that I owe the last 12 years of my life to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., and hope that this letter may be instrumental in saving the life and self-respect of some fellow man. My case was considered by my friends and neighbors as incurable. "The drowning man will grasp at a straw to save life," and, while my faith was weak, I concluded to give the Keeley Cure a fair and honest trial. I was nearly dead; my physician had warned me that a few short months would terminate my career in death; I left my home and family at once for Greensboro, N. C. I arrived at the Institute some time in September, 1892, and was honorably discharged as cured October 3d, 1892, and returned to my home and family a New Man. King Alcohol had been driven from my system, and I was no longer his slave. I had served this despot for more than thirty years without intermission—most of that time an habitual and confirmed drunkard. I took the treatment in good faith and conformed strictly to rules and regulations of the Institute, and have not had a desire to drink whiskey, and have not permitted the vile stuff to pass my lips since the day I entered the Institute—neither as a beverage nor any medicine that contained alcohol when prescribed by my physician.

SLIM HOPE FOR MRS. CHARWICK.

Will Serve Ten Years Unless Supreme Court Interferes.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick has lost her last hope for a new trial, unless the Supreme Court of the United States shall consent to allow a re-hearing. The United States Circuit court of appeals to-day refused her application for a new trial. The lengthy opinion of the court was read by Judge Burton. Mrs. Chadwick is now in the jail at Cleveland under sentence to the Ohio penitentiary for ten years, having been indicted and convicted of conspiring to defraud under the national banking law. The case was brought to the United State Circuit court of appeals on a writ of error and sentence was suspended pending the decision of the appeal.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

Daughters of Revolution to Erect Handsome Building.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Donald McLean, of New York, president of the Daughters of the Aemrican Revolution, has been appointed a commissioner from New York for the Jamestown Exposition by Governor Higgins. The Daughters will build a permanent house on Jamestown Island, one of the highest points of land in that vicinity. This building, to be constructed of stone, will cost about $6.500, and its exterior will be a facsimile of some old colonial mansion, probably the house of Sir Walter Raleigh. This commission, which originally consisted of Virginia ladies, has been enlarged to 53 by the addition of one member from each State.

JEFFERSON DAVIS MONUMENT.

Ground Broken at Richmond for Memorial to Confederate President.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Ground was broken here today for the monument for Jefferson Davis to be erected by the United Daughters of the Confederacy at a cost of $50,000. Mrs. S. T. McCullough, of Staunton, Va., chairman of the monument committee, presided which were simple in the extreme and were witnessed practically by the members of the building committee only. The unveiling ceremonies are fixed for 1907 and are expected to be highly elaborate, the whole South participating through prominent representatives.
